

ASCnet is Member Driven

"As an ASCnet member since 1990, we continue to find value year after year. Probably the biggest thing would be the network of other users that are there to help on the newsgroups or a quick phone call. The resources and education have also proven to be extremely useful. After 16 years of attending conferences, there still isn't a year that we don't bring back something that impacts our agency in a positive way immediately. The sessions and speakers are phenomenal."
